PREFACE.

THE Second Volume of the "Lists of Sanskrit Manuscripts in Private Libraries of Southern India" contains the names of 10,421 Manuscripts. To these is added an Appendix containing three Indexes.

The first is an "Alphabetical Index to the MSS. of Volume II;" the second an "Alphabetical Index of the MSS. in Volumes I and II according to Subject-matter," and the third an "Alphabetical Index of Authors with the names of their works mentioned in Volumes I and II."

These three Indexes refer to about 48,000 different items. Though I have tried to arrange them as carefully as possible, I know that the great number of references and insufficient information must have caused some inaccuracies to appear, especially in the two last parts of the Appendix. For such unavoidable deficiencies I appeal to the forbearance of the experienced critic.

The lists found in this volume have been obtained by me in the same manner as those in Volume I. In a few cases I have been supplied with catalogues by Government officials, the most important among these being that of the library of the Jāghīrdār of Arcée forwarded to me by Mr. Whiteside when Collector of North Arcot.

Since I commenced printing this second volume, various districts of this Presidency have been visited by me, and, during my absence in 1883, by Mr. M. Seshagiri Sastriyar. Our search has been as yet mainly confined to the districts of Salem, North Arcot, Chingleput and the state of Mysore. In order to prove how rich Southern India is in Sanskrit Manuscripts, and how necessary it is that a search for such literary remains should be methodically conducted, I may point out that we succeeded in cataloguing in North Arcot and Salem about 3,500 and 8,300 MSS., while through the lists forwarded to me I was able to obtain the names of only 446 and 49 MSS. In Mysore alone, I have catalogued up to date 18,300 MSS. against 1,784 contained in these two volumes.

For the sake of information and comparison, I give in a table below the names of the districts and states, and the number of MSS. supplied by each.
